

NOTIFICATION TO THE HOUSE.

Mr. LODGE submitted the following resolution (S. Res. 2), which was read, considered by unanimous consent, and agreed to:

Resolved, That the Secretary inform the House of Representatives that a quorum of the Senate is assembled and that the Senate is ready to proceed to business.

HOUR OF DAILY MEETING.

Mr. LODGE submitted the following resolution (S. Res. 3), which was read, considered by unanimous consent, and agreed to:

Resolved, That the hour of daily meeting of the Senate be 12 o'clock meridian until otherwise ordered.

DEATH OF THE LATE SENATOR NICHOLSON.

Mr. PHIPPS. Mr. President, it is my sad duty to refer to the passing of my late colleague and friend, Senator SAMUEL D. NICHOLSON, of Colorado. I send to the desk a resolution and ask for its immediate consideration.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The Senator from Colorado offers a resolution, which will be read by the Secretary.

The resolution (S. Res. 4) was read, considered by unanimous consent, and unanimously agreed to, as follows:

Resolved, That the Senate has heard with deep regret and profound sorrow the announcement of the death of the Hon. SAMUEL D. NICHOLSON, late a Senator from the State of Colorado.

Resolved, That the Secretary communicate these resolutions to the House of Representatives and transmit a copy thereof to the family of the deceased.

DEATH OF THE LATE SENATOR NELSON.

Mr. SHIPSTEAD. Mr. President, it becomes my sad duty to announce to the Senate the death of the Hon. KNUTE NELSON, late a Senator from the State of Minnesota.

Senator NELSON died April 28, 1923, having arrived at the ripe old age of 80 years, 45 of which had been spent in public service, the last 28 as a Member of this body.

Senator NELSON was a remarkable man, a strong, sturdy, self-reliant figure. This, however, is not the time nor the proper occasion for extended remarks. Upon some other occasion I shall ask the Senate to set aside a day upon which his colleagues may pay tribute to his work and worth as a man and a legislator.

I offer the resolution which I send to the desk and ask unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The Senator from Minnesota offers a resolution, which will be read.

The resolution (S. Res. 5) was read, considered by unanimous consent, and unanimously agreed to, as follows:

Resolved, That the Senate has heard with deep regret and profound sorrow the announcement of the death of the Hon. KNUTE NELSON, late a Senator from the State of Minnesota.

Resolved, That the Secretary communicate these resolutions to the House of Representatives and transmit a copy thereof to the family of the deceased.

DEATH OF THE LATE SENATOR DILLINGHAM.

Mr. GREENE. Mr. President, it is my solemn duty thus formally to announce to the Senate the death of Senator WILLIAM P. DILLINGHAM, which took place in Vermont on July 12, during the vacation of Congress. I am privileged to say in behalf of his family that for many years Senator DILLINGHAM has made known to them that in the event he should, as the saying is, die in the harness, it was his request that the Senate hold no formal memorial exercises on his account.

I offer the resolution which I send to the desk, and ask unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The Senator from Vermont offers a resolution, which will be read by the Secretary.

The resolution (S. Res. 6) was read, considered by unanimous consent, and unanimously agreed to, as follows:

Resolved, That the Senate has heard with deep regret and profound sorrow the announcement of the death of the Hon. WILLIAM P. DILLINGHAM, late a Senator from the State of Vermont.

Resolved, That the Secretary communicate these resolutions to the House of Representatives and transmit a copy thereof to the family of the deceased.

Mr. GREENE. Mr. President, as a further mark of respect to the memory of the deceased Senators, I move that the Senate do now adjourn.

The motion was unanimously agreed to; and (at 12 o'clock and 45 minutes p. m.) the Senate adjourned until to-morrow, Tuesday, December 4, 1923, at 12 o'clock meridian.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

MONDAY, December 3, 1923.

This day, in compliance with the provisions of the Constitution, the Members elect of the House of Representatives of the Sixty-eighth Congress met in their Hall, and at 12 o'clock noon were called to order by William Tyler Page, the Clerk of the last House.

The Chaplain of the last House, Rev. James Shera Montgomery, D. D., offered the following prayer:

Almighty God and our heavenly Father, unto whom all hearts are open and all desires are known, lighten our eyes that we may be deeply sensible of Thy presence and conscious of our responsibilities. The star in our Nation's firmament that has so lately shone is dimmed, and with abiding sorrow we accept the rule of Thy sovereign will. The past is closed and the fruits of the years belong to our Republic by inheritance. The door of the future is now ajar. Oh, make us wise and strong as we move forward with the duties that await us. Bless and guide our President in every way.

We lift our eyes unto the hills from whence cometh our strength; our help cometh from the Lord; above all and over all is Thy loving and wise providence. Hitherto Thou hast led us and we thank Thee. Thy hand has guided and shaped our Republic in the past. Continue to be the pilot in the lookout of the ship of state, and direct every citizen in the land to lay his best gifts upon the altar of his country. May the liberties, opportunities, and the richest blessings of the people be safeguarded by the best and the wisest service. Scatter the flowers of peace and plenty upon all waste places and make all homes radiant with Christian gladness; and may the genius of free government continue to bless all our people. Through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

The CLERK. Representatives elect, this is the day fixed by the Constitution of the United States for the meeting of the Sixty-eighth Congress of the United States of America. The CLERK. Four hundred and eighteen Members have responded. A quorum is present. The Clerk will state that credentials regular in form have been filed showing the election of WILLIAM P. JARRETT as a Delegate from the Territory of Hawaii and of DAN A. SUTHERLAND as a Delegate from the Territory of Alaska. Two Resident Commissioners to the United States from the Philippine Islands are elected by the Philippine Legislature triennially. The President of the United States has transmitted the credentials of ISAURO GABALDON and PEDRO GUEVARA, showing their election as Resident Commissioners from the Philippine Islands for a term of three years commencing March 4, 1923.

During the call the following announcements were made:

The CLERK. JAMES C. CANTRILL was elected from the seventh district of the State of Kentucky and died on the 2d day of September. The credentials of his successor have not been received, although it is understood that an election has been held. Therefore the seat remains vacant for the present.

The Clerk has received a concurrent resolution, adopted by the Thirty-eighth Legislature of the State of Texas, reciting that said State is entitled to an additional Representative in Congress, based upon its population according to the census of 1920; that the failure of Congress to reapportion representation can not deny the State of Texas its proper representation of 19 Members in the House of Representatives; and that, therefore, the Hon. E. W. Cole, having been duly elected as Congressman at large from said State at the election held November 6, 1922, be allowed to take his seat.

The Clerk has also received a certificate, duly authenticated, accrediting E. W. Cole, from the State of Texas, as elected from the State at large; but as the Clerk is not aware of any law authorizing that State to have more than 18 Representatives he has not placed upon the roll the name of E. W. Cole as having been elected from the State of Texas.

The question is one for the consideration of the House when it shall have organized.

The Clerk has also received two communications, partly in the form of a petition to the House of Representatives and partly in the form of a notice of contest, from Henry Young, a citizen of Texas, styling himself as contestant, in which is questioned, on constitutional and other grounds, the validity of the election of the 18 persons whose certificates of election in due form as Representatives elect from the State of Texas were received by the Clerk, and whose names were placed upon the roll of Representatives elect pursuant to section 31 of the Revised Statutes of the United States. The petitioner or contestant named the secretary of state of the State of Texas as the contestee.

The Revised Statutes of the United States, section 105, provide that—

Whenever any person intends to contest an election of any Member of the House of Representatives of the United States, he shall, within 30 days after the result of such election shall have been determined by the officer or board of canvassers authorized by law to determine the same, give notice in writing to the Member whose seat he designs to contest of his intention to contest the same, and in such notice shall specify particularly the grounds upon which he relies in the contest.

It not appearing to the Clerk that a contest has been brought by the said Henry Young in accordance with the foregoing provision of law, and the prima facie title to seats in the House of Representatives of the persons named in his communications being evidenced by certificates in due form, their names were enrolled as Representatives elect and will therefore be called, and the communications of said Henry Young will await such consideration as the House may desire to accord them when it shall have organized.

The Clerk will present for information of the Members a statement showing changes that have occurred since the regular election of Representatives for the Sixty-eighth Congress. If there be no objection, the statement will be printed in the RECORD.

There was no objection.

ELECTION OF SPEAKER.

The CLERK. The next business in order is the election of a Speaker. Nominations will now be received.

Mr. ANDERSON. Mr. Clerk, by direction and authority of the Republican conference, representing a majority of the membership of the House of Representatives, I have the honor to place in nomination for Speaker of the House of Representatives during the continuance of the Sixty-eighth Congress Hon. FREDERICK HUNTINGTON GILLET, a Representative elect from the State of Massachusetts. [Applause.]

Mr. RAINEY. Mr. Clerk, by direction of the Democratic Members of the House of Representatives in caucus assembled, I am authorized and directed to present as a candidate for Speaker of the House of Representatives during the Sixty-eighth Congress the name of FINIS J. GARRETT of Tennessee. [Applause.]

Mr. BROWNE of Wisconsin. Mr. Clerk, under the rights accorded me as a Representative in this body, I wish to place in nomination for the high position of Speaker of the House of Representatives during the Sixty-eighth Congress a gentleman who has sat in the House for 28 years, who was elected to his fifteenth term in this body by, so far as I know, the largest majority ever accorded any Member of this body. During all of the vicissitudes of politics in the last 25 or 30 years this man has weathered all of the storms. His Republicanism has been indorsed not only by his people but by a great many of the thinking people of the United States.

I want to say this, and with deference to the gentlemen who have already been presented in nomination, that if the man who I am about to name be elected Speaker at this time he will stand for a reformation of the rules that govern this body. The rules of the House of Representatives that have been followed since the organization of this House under the Constitution of the United States, Article I, which gives to Congress the right to make its own rules, are such that they give, many times, a small minority in this body the power to control legislation and prevent bills from coming out of committees and being considered upon the floor of the House. Under our rules to-day 95 per cent of all of the business that we transact is transacted in the Committee of the Whole, and 95 per cent of the votes cast in this body under our present rules are cast in the Committee of the Whole, where, under the rules, no record vote can be had and which in effect is a secret ballot. The people of the country are determined and have demanded that the proceedings of this legislative body, said to be the greatest in the world, shall be open and above board, that every step in legislation from the time measures are voted upon in committees until final action be taken on the floor be taken in the light of publicity, and that the people of the United States have the opportunity of seeing how their Members, their agents here, have voted.

A number of years ago the rules of this body were amended and the Speaker of the House then was divested of the great power which he had up to that time enjoyed. That change in the rules of the House of Representatives decided a presidential election. To-day many complaints are justly made against these rules, and many glaring defects pointed out. One of the complaints is made that seven men, who constitute a majority on the Committee on Rules, have the power to stifle legislation, and have frequently exercised that power. The Committee on Rules has been called the morgue of legislation in the House of Representatives.

If the gentleman I propose to name is elected Speaker, his election to that high office will insure this body having its legislative proceedings made public, because he will throw the force of his influence as Speaker to the end that you may have an opportunity to vote upon every legislative measure not only in the committees but in this body.

Away back 30 years ago I remember the man whose name I am about to present made a great fight for representative government in his own State. He was the man who drafted and passed through the Legislature of the State of Wisconsin the Australian ballot system. Before that time there was not a State in the Union where there was a secret ballot. When the Australian ballot was adopted by the State of Wisconsin other States took it up, and to-day throughout the United States we have a secret ballot. I know that what I am saying may be distasteful to some of the Members of this House, but in the 28 years that HENRY ALLEN COOPER has been in this body he has stood for all of the progressive legislation that has been enacted and which the Republican Party is and may be justly proud of. He has stood among the very foremost in every fight for the benefit of the people and for representative government. To-day the State of Wisconsin presents the name of HENRY ALLEN COOPER for your consideration, not that we expect at this time to elect him, but we present his name as a protest to the rules that have grown up in this body, under which this House will be organized again when the leader of the House makes the usual motion that the rules of the Sixty-seventh Congress be made the rules of the Sixty-eighth Congress, then moves the previous question upon it, and thus absolutely prevents debate. I consider that the rules that govern this body are the most important things. Upon the fairness of the rules rests the whole structure of representative government. Without fair rules we can not possibly legislate for the benefit of the people, and any fair-minded person will admit that the rules in their present condition need amendment. If Mr. COOPER be elected Speaker of this House he will throw the force of his influence as Speaker to the end that the rules of the House may be so amended that every bill which has any great number of Members in its favor may be brought out on the floor of the House and voted upon and a record vote be had upon it. That is what all the people of this country want. They want to know how their Representatives in Congress, how their agents, are voting in this body, which under the present rules they can not know.

Therefore, Mr. Clerk, I present the name of HENRY ALLEN COOPER as a candidate for the Speakership of this body, because he is a man who has always stood for the people's rights. No one can to-day criticize his record. It has been an open book for the last 28 years, during which time he has served in this body. He stands on that record, and it is a record of which any man may be proud. I present his name not only in behalf of the people of Wisconsin, and of the Wisconsin delegation, but in behalf of other Representatives here who favor a revision of the rules, and who favor the fullest publicity in all of the proceedings of the Sixty-eighth Congress. [Applause.]

Mr. REID of Illinois. Mr. Clerk, acting solely upon my own initiative and with a view to the future good of the Republican Party in the great Middle West, from which I come, I place in nomination the name of MARTIN B. MADDEN, of Illinois. Some may say that I attended a conference the other day and am bound by it. I did not attend a conference; I attended an approbation meeting. Therefore I insist upon my candidate being presented for the consideration of the Members.

Mr. MADDEN. Mr. Clerk, I simply wish the Members of the House to understand that I am not a candidate for Speaker.

The CLERK. Hon. FREDERICK H. GILLETT, a Representative elect from the State of Massachusetts, Hon. FINIS J. GARRETT, a Representative elect from the State of Tennessee, Hon. HENRY ALLEN COOPER, a Representative elect from the State of Wisconsin, and Hon. MARTIN B. MADDEN, a Representative elect from the State of Illinois, have been placed in nomination. There being no further nominations, the Clerk will appoint the gentlemen from New York [Mr. CROWTHER], the gentleman from Kansas [Mr. HOCH], the gentleman from Georgia [Mr. CHASE], and the gentleman from New Hampshire [Mr. ROGERS] to act as tellers.

Mr. BROWNE of Wisconsin. Mr. Clerk, before casting a ballot, is it not necessary to swear in the Members?

The CLERK. The Members elect can not be sworn in until a Speaker is elected. The roll will now be called, and gentlemen will indicate by name the candidate of their choice. The tellers will please come forward and take their places at the desk.

The tellers having taken their places, the House proceeded to vote viva voce for Speaker. The following is the vote in detail:

ANSWERED "PRESENT"—3.

Cooper, Wis.

Garrett, Tenn.

The CLERK. The tellers agree in their tally. The total number of votes cast is 415, of which the Hon. FREDERICK H. GILLET has received 197, Hon. FINIS J. GARRETT 196, Hon. HENRY ALLEN COOPER 17, and Hon. MARTIN B. MADDEN 5. Three gentlemen have answered "Present." No gentleman having received a majority of the votes cast, there is no result.

ADJOURNMENT.

Mr. LONGWORTH. Mr. Clerk, it seems entirely evident that no good purpose can be served by having another ballot tonight. My only regret is that on this first day of the session we are unable to do what seems to me to be the proper and obvious thing—adjourn out of respect to the memory of our deceased colleagues. But our hands are tied; we have no recourse. Therefore, Mr. Clerk, I move that we do now adjourn until to-morrow at 12 o'clock noon.

The CLERK. The gentleman from Ohio moves that the House adjourn until 12 o'clock meridian to-morrow.

The question was taken, and the motion was agreed to; accordingly (at 3 o'clock and 46 minutes p. m.) the House adjourned until to-morrow, Tuesday, December 4, 1923, at 12 o'clock noon.
